6 per cent Secured Certificates

The Certificates of Deposit issued by the Salt Lake Security and Trust Company draw interest at 6 per cent. They are twice as profitable as government bonds and just as secure. These certificates do not depreciate in value, as they are not subject to the rise and fall of the money market. People who desire to avoid the anxiety incident to fluctuating stocks and bonds find them in every way a desirable form of investment.

'THE MASTER THEATRE BUILDER'

In "The Beauty Shop" now playing at the Astor theatre in New York, Raymond Hitchcock and Marion Sunshine have a travesty on "The Master Builder," and some of their fool patter runs like this:

MARION—That's a terrible disturbance you're starting around here. Can't you use a noiseless hammer?

HITCHY—Do you take me for a dramatic critic?

MARION—It's after hours. You shouldn't work now anyhow.

HITCHY—Understood I you to say I shouldn't work I must. I'm building my theatre.

MARION—Well, can't you hire somebody to do that for you?

HITCHY—Nope. I'm broke. Gotta build it myself.

MARION—What's this big open space here?

HITCHY—Oh, that's the main entrance, right off Main street, where all the crowds will come in.

MARION—Main street! Oh, yes. Yes, all the crowds will pass by the main entrance, won't they?

HITCHY—Now, don't get sourcaustic or I'll wrap the old family armchair around your neck.

MARION—But I don't see any seats in this theatre.

HITCHY—Right. No seats. Standing room only.

MARION—Oh, you expect the place to be as popular as that?

HITCHY—Popular. Why, I've rented the entire gallery already to the United Cigar Stores on a 999-year lease. They're going to give one admission to each customer for fifty thousand coupons.

MARION—That balcony seems to be only half-cooked. That's an awfully funny balcony.

HITCHY—Well, you bet. I want it to be funny. All the rest of the balconies in New York are sad. Good evening, Mr. Treasurer!

MARION—After whom will you name this theatre, after whom?

HITCHY—You just learned that word "whom," didn't you? It's being said superabundantly right now.

MARION—Well, the name?

HITCHY—Oh, yes, the name of the theatre. Why, I think I'll name it after some actor.

MARION—What actor?

HITCHY—Now, really, you know, I hate to talk about myself, but, I repeat, I shall name it after some actor.

MARION—How about the admission prices?

HITCHY—Admission? Oh, very simple. There will be absolutely free admission to all parts of the house.

MARION—What!

HITCHY—Positively. Get the crowd in. That's what you have to do these days. Then charge 'em a dollar apiece to get out.

MARION—I suppose you expect to get rich in one night that way.

HITCHY—Of course. You see, there'll be no debt on the theatre. It costs me nothing to build, because I'm doing the work myself, as you see by my hammer.

MARION—Who's going to be your leading lady?

HITCHY—She's the daughter of a poor rich brewer. I had to give her the ingenue assignment, because we're going to serve beer between

Why Living is High

Living is high because people are careless in their buying. A specific instance is the buying of coal.

Tests have been made of the different kinds.

The results have been charted. "Aberdeen" leads the field with an actual fuel content of over 95 per cent.

Ton prices are uniform.

Still some people continue to buy and burn ordinary coal.

There's no excuse for it.

All that's necessary to get the utmost in coal, is to specify "Aberdeen."
